

HURT IN ACCIDENTS ALL OVER CAPITAL

Several Persons Injured in Falls.
Man Loses Fingers Under Traction Car.

Several persons were injured in accidents in different sections of the city this morning and last night.

Samuel Titus, of 220 Champlain avenue, an employee of the Capital Traction company, lost three fingers under a car wheel while working in an excavation between the tracks in U street, near Seventeenth street northwest.

Falling from a Georgia avenue car, near the corner of Lamont street, George R. Dodge, sixty-eight years old, an inmate of the Soldiers Home, was badly bruised about the body. He was taken to Freedmen's Hospital.

Daniel Brooks, of 811 W street northwest, was thrown from his motorcycle and injured about the body in a collision with an automobile at Maryland avenue and First street southwest. He was taken to Emergency Hospital.

Slipping on a rug at her home, 603 Louisiana avenue northwest, Mrs. Martha Matthews, seventy years old, fell and fractured her hip. She was carried to Emergency Hospital.

Edward F. Howard, of New York, a guest at the Sterling Hotel, fell while alighting from a car at Mt. Vernon, and sprained his ankle. He returned to Washington by boat and was removed to his hotel in a taxicab.

Raymond Moore, seventeen years old, of 185 Hamilton street northwest, fell from a milk wagon at Sixth and I streets northwest, and broke his wrist.

G. W. Morris Is Sued After Motor Car Collision

George J. Smith has filed suit in the District Supreme Court against George W. Morris for $30,000 damages for injuries he says he received when an automobile belonging to the defendant collided with a fire engine on which Smith was riding. The accident is alleged to have occurred at the corner of R and Ninth streets northwest on April 24.

Fish Dinner Feature at G. A. R. Anniversary

Rock fish, shad, crappies, bass, catfish and perch will be the menu at the thirty-first anniversary celebration of Burdette Post, No. 4 G. A. R., Saturday afternoon at Great Falls. The Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans have been invited.

Dr. A. J. Hinton has prepared an interesting program. Special cars will leave the Georgetown station at 2 o'clock and the dinner will be served at 4.

Civil Service Probe May Be Next Session

Indications continue to be that the proposed civil service investigation by order of the Senate will not be undertaken at this session. Moreover, President Wilson probably will not send the names of the new Civil Service Commission to the Senate until after the investigation has been completed.

Should the session continue through the fall in order to accomplish currency legislation, the investigation would probably be held then. Until the tariff is out of the way, however, Senators are unwilling to go into the civil service inquiry.

PARISH TO HONOR LONG-TERM RECTOR

The Rev. Dr. George Fiske Dudley and Mrs. Dudley Are To Be Reception Guests.

The Rev. Dr. George Fiske Dudley, who has just finished his twentieth year as rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Fourteenth street, near Columbia road, in company with Mrs. Dudley, will be honored at a reception in the parish hall, adjoining the church, by the 100 members of St. Stephen's guild tonight.

Only members of the parish and other clergymen and their wives have been invited. Brief addresses will be made by older members of the parish.

The boy's choir will sing and other numbers on the evening's program are vocal and instrumental solos. Refreshments will be served.

The record of Dr. Dudley is unusual in that St. Stephen's is the only church he ever held, having been called there directly after he finished his education at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, and three years in Oxford University, England.
